How Grants Are Determined: A request for a grant must come from an Ordinary or Major Religious Superior to the Holy See's Secretary of State. His staff reviews all the requests, matching it against criteria set by the Holy Father, and narrowing the choices to about one hundred. Then, the Secretary of State and the Holy Father review the requests, narrowing the list still further, and make requests to The Papal Foundation. The Trustees of The Papal Foundation determine the sum of the individual grants awarded.

Fields of interest: Pastoral/Religious & Socio-Economic: see online for more information.

Geographical areas of interest: Africa, America, Asia, Europe, Oceania
